Communiqué
of the Warsaw Stock Exchange
dated 12 November 2026

Further to the notification by ASBIS Enterprises PLC (ASBIS), the decision of the Company's Management Board of 4th November 2026 concerning the payment by ASBIS PLC an advance dividend for 2025/2026, the Warsaw Stock Exchange hereby informs that, pursuant to § 91 of Division IV of the Detailed Exchange Trading Rules in WATS System, the reference price of the series of futures contracts on ASBIS shares with ticker symbols FASBZ26, FASBH27 and FASBM27 will be modified for the trading session on 13 November 2026 (first day of trading of ASBIS PLC without the right to the advance dividend). The number of shares per contract will be modified for contract series FASBZ26, FASBH27 due to existing open positions at the end of session on 12 November 2026.

The reference price for the trading session on 13 November 2026 and the new number of shares per contract applicable as of that day will be as follows:

Ticker symbol	Reference price for the trading session on 13 November 2026	Number of shares per contract applicable as of 13 November 2026
FASBZ26	165.28	100.84
FASBH27	170.62	100.84
FASBM27	163.63	100

Pursuant to § 91(4) of Division IV of the Detailed Exchange Trading Rules in WATS System, all broker's orders for those series of futures contracts submitted to the exchange and not executed by the end of the trading session on 12 November 2026 will become void after the close of trade on that day.

This is also to inform that the number of shares per contract for all subsequent introduced series of futures contracts on ASBIS PLC shares will be 1. This means that until the expiry of the series FSABH27, series of futures contracts on ASBIS PLC shares with a different number of shares per contract will be in trading on the exchange.

Arkadiusz Detyniecki
Trading Department Director