

Paweł Zdort is an attorney-at-law and managing partner of Rymarz Zdort Maruta, one of the leading law firms in Poland, specialising in M&A transactions, company law, capital market law, new technology law and commercial disputes.

He has almost 30 years of experience in providing legal advice in the most complex and prestigious M&A transactions, public offerings, corporate restructurings and regulatory projects. He advises global private equity funds, industry investors, public companies, financial institutions and the Treasury.

He graduated with honours from the University of Warsaw Law Department in 1998 and was entered in the list of attorneys-at-law in 2003. He began his career in the Warsaw office of the New York law firm Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, with which he was affiliated for more than 20 years, serving as a partner from 2006 and as managing partner of the Warsaw office from 2018. In 2019, he was one of the main architects of the law firm Rymarz Zdort, which took over Weil's Warsaw office team. In 2022, he co-founded the merger of the law firm Rymarz Zdort with the law firm Maruta Wachta.

Rankings and awards:

Paweł Zdort has been recognised for years as one of the top lawyers in Poland in corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, equity capital markets (ECM), private equity transactions, energy and natural resources. His recommendations range from international legal industry rankings, such as Chambers & Partners, The Legal 500, IFLR1000, PLC Which Lawyer? and Expert Guides, to national listings, for example in the daily newspaper Rzeczpospolita and the Polish edition of Forbes magazine.
