

Rafał Kamiński is an attorney-at-law and partner in the Warsaw office of the law firm White & Case in the Capital Markets team. He has close to 20 years of professional experience. He holds a degree from the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Jagiellonian University and the University of Salzburg.

He specialises in commercial law with a particular focus on joint-stock company law and capital markets. He has many years of experience in advising Polish and international investors in a wide range of capital market transactions, public and private mergers and acquisitions, and private equity transactions in the Polish and European markets. He specialises in privatisation and corporate governance.

Rafał Kamiński has provided advisory to issuers as well as financing institutions in dozens of IPOs, SPOs and ABBs, and regularly advises listed companies on transactional and regulatory issues related to the capital market.

His professionalism and achievements are frequently recognised in leading international legal rankings. Chambers and Partners recommends Rafał Kamiński in the highest Band 1 category in the area of Equity Capital Markets, and Legal 500 EMEA recognises him as a Leading Partner in the category of Capital Markets in Poland.

He is the co-author of multiple legal opinions and publications on transactional advice on mergers and acquisitions of public companies and privatisations. He is fluent in Polish and English.