Notes:

I. Fee independent of the scope of received data selected by the Exchange Member.

II. An Exchange Member who pays fees for use of an access solution other than listed in points 1.1 and 1.2 is not required to pay the fees listed in points 1.1 and 1.2.

III. The fee depends on the highest capacity limit allocated to the Exchange Member within the month as part of the connection. The basis of the total fee for all connections shall be reduced with the free-of-charge capacity allocated to the Exchange Member (20 messages/second).

IV. Messages are understood as the following operations on orders made by the Exchange Member: placing, modifying, cancelling broker’s orders.

V. Fees shall not be charged for messages sent by the Exchange Member exclusively as part of the market making tasks.

VI. Fees shall be charged from each party to a transaction except for turnover made as part of the market making tasks.

VII. Fees on orders shall be charged on each order executed in one trading session or part of an order executed in one trading session. After modification resulting in the loss of priority of the time of acceptance/disclosure in the order book, a broker’s order shall be considered a new order.

VIII. Fees shall be charged only from the Exchange Member applying for cancellation of a transaction.

IX. Transaction fees resulting from cancelled transactions shall not be charged to the parties to such transactions.

X. Debt financial instruments include bonds, covered bonds and other transferable securities which incorporate property rights equivalent to rights arising from borrowed debt, excluding structured instruments, ETCs and ETNs.

Structured instruments include bank derivative rights within the meaning of the Act of 29 August 1997 – Banking Law and structured instruments issued under foreign law, including structured bonds, structured certificates and put/call warrants, excluding ETCs and ETNs.

XI. Fee on a trade correction request is charged to each party of the corrected block trade. Transaction fees charged to the parties of a corrected block trade are non-reducible and non-refundable.

XII. The right to reduced rates of exchange fees on transactions made as part of market making, referred to in points 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3 of this Exhibit, respectively, is vested in those market makers that have agreed in the market making agreement to comply with the market making requirements including presence on the order book, the minimum order value/volume and the maximum spread, determined for the specific instruments in Exhibit 12 or Exhibit 13 to the Detailed Exchange Trading Rules, respectively, as well as the additional market making conditions defined therein. The provisions of the first sentence shall apply accordingly to fees charged to exchange members through which market makers who are not exchange members perform their tasks.

XIII. Market makers retain the right to the reduced rates of exchange fees referred to in points 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3 of this Exhibit, respectively, even if they do not comply with the applicable market making requirements or additional market making conditions referred to in Exhibit 12 or Exhibit 13 to the Detailed Exchange Trading Rules, respectively, due to exceptional circumstances referred to in Article 3 of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU)

2017/578.

XIV. Market makers retain the right to the reduced rates of exchange fees referred to in points 5.1 or 5.2 of this Exhibit, respectively, even if they do not comply with the applicable market making requirements or additional market making conditions referred to in Exhibit 12 to the Detailed Exchange Trading Rules if the Exchange announces extreme market conditions defined in Exhibit 10 to the Detailed Exchange Trading Rules. In that period, however, market makers shall exercise due diligence when performing the market making activities, including compliance with the relaxed market making conditions applicable in the event of the announcement of extreme market conditions according to Exhibit 12 to the Detailed Exchange Trading Rules.
